

Homes for the Homeless provides transitional housing and wide-ranging support services to homeless families with children in New York City. Our family residences in the Bronx and Queens are always looking for new volunteers to get involved in our afterschool, recreation, and special events programming.

VOLUNTEERS

We are seeking volunteers with the following characteristics:

- Flexible schedule.
- Understanding and patience for working with children and youths living in shelters or under stressful circumstances.
- Ability to work with children ages 3 to 15 years old.
- Ability to assist staff in day-to-day schedule.
- Ability to assist children with homework.
- Comfortable working in a shelter environment.
- Friendly and creative; willingness to assist and take direction from staff.
- A passion for working with children and gaining knowledge about the shelter system.
- Willingness to travel to our shelters in the Bronx and/or the Jamaica area of Queens.

New and creative ideas for events and activities are always welcomed. Past volunteers have organized gardening days, yoga classes, science experiments, a fashion show, field trips, and more.

If you would like more information about organizing a volunteer activity, please email contact@hfhnyc.org.
